VIRGINIA COMPANY BANK BREAKS GROUND IN HAMPTON

Hampton, VA (May 24, 2010) - The Board of Directors at Virginia Company Bank (www.vacompanybank.com) is excited to announce that the Bank has broken ground on a new banking office at Coliseum Central in Hampton. The four and a half year old bank currently has branches at Oyster Point in Newport News and New Town in Williamsburg.

“We’re very excited to bring Virginia Company Bank into the Hampton market,” said Bank President and CEO Mark Hanna. “There is so much going on at Coliseum Central, and we look forward to providing great banking and developing solid partnerships with our Hampton neighbors.”

Located at the corner of Coliseum Drive and Marcella Road, the new banking office will be approximately 5,000 square feet in size and feature a classic colonial style. A three-lane drive-thru will make on-the-go banking easy and convenient. The building is being designed by Rancorn Wildman Architects and constructed by Ritchie-Curbow Construction.

No hires have been made just yet, but the Bank anticipates a staff of 5 or 6 people. The new Hampton banking office is slated to open in mid-November. Images of the groundbreaking can be viewed at www.flickr.com/photos/vacompanybank/.
